Dear Parishioners:

DO YOU HAVE UNUSED CELL PHONES THAT YOU DO NOT KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH? Between now and June 30th, we will take any cell phone that you would like to recycle. We will then turn them in to a Company called Pace Butler Corporation who will make a donation to our parish for each phone turned in. Our plan is to use the money that is raised to assist people with financial need. Please remember to remove all personal information and pictures from your cell phones before you turn them in. Boxes will be placed at each of the doors at our three churches. Please consider having your friends and co-workers participate as well. Thank you for your participation.

LIVING ROSARY: The Ladies of Ste. Anne of St. Vincent de Paul Church will sponsor their 3rd Annual Living Rosary, Friday, May 29th, at 7:00 p.m. Each bead is recited by a parishioner to be stationed around the church, and these volunteers will meet in the basement at 6:40 to line up and receive their candles. It is requested that parishioners from all three communities volunteer. Light refreshments will be served in the parish hall.
